Faculty/Staff Bystander Training

A green dot is any choice, behavior, word or attitude that promotes safety for everyone and communicates utter intolerance for power-based personal violence in our Iowa State University community.

What is Green Dot?
Green Dot at Iowa State University aims to decrease power-based personal violence on campus by utilizing education, outreach, and development as mechanisms for increasing awareness and competency around bystander intervention skills.

Why should I participate?
- Learn about ‘active’ bystander skills to use in your role, with peers, students, and your community.
- Receive access to tangible tools you can use to integrate in your departments, classrooms, and office spaces.
- Receive Green Dot gear to help promote ending violence in our community.
- Join over 2,000 community members that have participated in training and program.

What is Bystander Training?
Bystander Training for Faculty/Staff is a 3-Hour training designed to help employees understand the expanded definition of “bystander”. Participants will leave equipped with the knowledge, skills, and key behaviors to establish norms that address power-based violence in our community.
